

Two DRAFT additional statements of CTF policy, proposed for adoption by CTF (these would add to the policy & principles adopted in our 1998 Final Report, etc.)

- 1. The CTF expects that the site shall be capable of being characterized, modeled, analyzed and monitored.
- 2. The CTF expects that modeling done to characterize the site will provide a useful framework for working through any substantial differences in results from different models.